Communion Hospitality
Lutheran Christians believe Christ is truly present in his supper. By faith we receive his Body and Blood “in, with, and under” the forms: of bread and wine for our forgiveness, life, and salvation. All baptized Christians who desire to receive Jesus in his sacrament, are welcome to commune.

Small candles are given to the Glory of God. Tall candles are given to the Glory of God.

*Confession and Forgiveness

Pastor: Blessed be God, the one who forms us, + Jesus who bears the cross, the Spirit who makes our joy complete C: Amen.

Let us bow before God in humility, confessing our sin.

Silence is kept for reflection

Pastor: Steadfast and merciful God, you have revealed the ways of justice, yet we fail to follow you. We are overwhelmed by the world’s violence and suffering. We are afraid to risk what we have for the sake of others. For the harm we have caused, known and unknown, forgive us. For the unjust demands we place on others and your creation, forgive us. For the ways we turn away from you and our neighbor, forgive us. Lead us back to you and set us on the right path; in the name of Jesus Christ, our Savior. Amen.

Pastor: Beloved in Christ, God’s justice stretches beyond all understanding. God’s compassion is beyond compare. In Jesus, God is always making a new way for us. In + Christ, you are already and always forgiven. Amen.

Liturgy of Holy Communion

*Great Thanksgiving and Sanctus p. 88
When our congregation gathered for worship on Sunday, September 24th, we heard again the story of God’s mighty acts and of the love shown to us in Jesus’ life, death, resurrection, and ascension, and they shared in the holy meal of the Lord’s Supper. Now, I bring to you this same word of life, and this same bread and cup of blessing, so that we may share in these gifts and be strengthened in communion with all the people of God.
Gathered at the Lord’s Table, we celebrated with thanksgiving that “in the night in which Jesus was betrayed, he took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples saying: Take and eat; this is my body given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me. Again, after supper he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink saying: “This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.” This is the supper of our Lord Jesus Christ, and this meal is shared with the assurance of our Lord’s presence through the gift of the Holy Spirit. This bread and cup, shared in the gathering of our faith, are now given here for you.

*The Lord’s Prayer p. 91
*Invitation to Communion: Pastor: Jesus invites you to this table, Come, eat, and live.

*Agnus Dei “Lamb of God” p. 92
As the ministers give the bread and wine, they say these words to each communicant:
“The body of Christ, given for you.” & “The blood of Christ, shed for you.”
After each, the communicant may say: ‘Amen.’
