Liturgy of Holy Communion

*Great Thanksgiving" and Sanctus

*When our brothers and sisters at Zion Lutheran Church in Hollidaysburg gathered in worship, they heard again the story of God's mighty acts and of the love shown to us in Jesus' life, death, resurrection, and ascension and they shared in the holy meal of the Lord's Supper. Now, I bring to you this same word of life, and this same bread and cup of blessing, so that we may share in these gifts and be strengthened in communion with all the people of God.

Gathered at the Lord's Table, our brothers and sisters in Christ celebrated with thanksgiving that "in the night in which Jesus was betrayed, he took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples saying: Take and eat; this is my body given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me. Again, after supper he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink saying: "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me." This is the supper of our Lord Jesus Christ, and this meal is shared with the assurance of our Lord's presence through the gift of the Holy Spirit. This bread and cup, shared in the gathering of our faith, are now given here for you.

*The Lord's Prayer p. 71

*Invitation to Communion: Pastor: Bread for the journey. A feast for hungry hearts. Come!

*Agnus Dei "Lamb of God" p. 72

As the ministers give the bread and wine, they say these words to each communicant:

"The body of Christ, given for you.' & 'The blood of Christ, shed for you.'

After each, the communicant may say: 'Amen.'
