Communion Hospitality

Lutheran Christians believe Christ is truly present in his supper. By faith we receive his Body and Blood "in, with, and under" the forms: of bread and wine for our forgiveness, life, and salvation. All baptized Christians who desire to receive Jesus in his sacrament, are welcome to commune..

Tall candles are in honor of, Mom, Kay Pohopin's 90th birthday by Karen. Small candles are in loving memory of Dad, Frank Pohopin by Karen.

(The sign of the cross + may be made by all in remembrance of their Baptism.)

*Announcements:

Pastor: Christ is Risen! C: He is risen indeed. Alleluia!

Pastor: Blessed be the Holy Trinity, + one God, the wellspring of grace, our Easter and our joy. C: Amen.

Pastor: Look, here is water! C: Here is our water of life Alleluia!

Immersed in the promises of baptism, let us give thanks for what God has done for us.

We give you thanks, O God, for in the beginning your voice thundered over the deep and water became the essence of life. Adam and Eve beheld Eden's verdant rivers. The ark carried your creation through the flood into a new day. Miriam led the dancing as your people passed through the sea into freedom's land. In a desert pool the Ethiopian official entered your boundless baptismal life.

Look, here is water! C: Here is our water of life! Alleluia!

At the river your beloved Son was baptized by John and anointed with the Holy Spirit. By the baptism of Jesus' death and resurrection you opened the floodgates of your reconciling love, freeing us to live as Easter people. We rejoice with glad hearts, giving all honor and praise to you, through the risen Christ, our source of living water, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, now and forever. C: Amen.

Look, here is water! C: Here is our water of life! Alleluia!

Liturgy of Holy Communion

*Great Thanksgiving and Sanctus

p. 68

*When our congregation gathered for worship on Sunday morning, we heard again the story of God's mighty acts and the love shown to us in Jesus' life, death, resurrection, and ascension, and we shared in the holy meal of the Lord's Supper. Now, I bring to you this same word of life, and this same bread and cup of blessing, so that we may share these gifts and be strengthened in communion with all the people of God.

Gathered at the Lord's table, we celebrated with thanksgiving that "in the night in which Jesus was betrayed, he took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples saying: Take and eat; this is my body given for you. Do this in remembrance of me. Again, after supper he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink saying: "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me." This is the supper our Lord Jesus Christ, and this meal is shared with the assurance of our Lord's presence through the gift of the Holy Spirit. This bread and cup, shared in the gathering of our faith, are now given here for you..

*The Lord's Prayer p. 71

*Invitation to Communion: Pastor: The risen Christ is made known to us in the breaking of the bread. Come and eat at God's table.

*Agnus Dei

"Lamb of God"
*As the ministers give the bread and wine, they say these words to each communicant:
'The body of Christ, given for you.' & 'The blood of Christ, shed for you.'
After each, the communicant may say: 'Amen.'*
