Pastor:

Blessed be the holy Trinity, + one God, the God of manna, the God of miracles, and the God of mercy.

C: Amen.

Pastor:

Drawn to Christ and seeking God’s abundance, let us confess our sin.

Silence is kept for reflection.

Please kneel as your are able.

Pastor:

God our provider, help us. It is hard to believe there is enough to share. We question your ways when they differ from the ways of the world in which we live. We turn to our own understanding rather than trusting in you. We take offense at your teachings and your ways. Turn us again to you. Where else can we turn? Share with us the words of eternal life and feed us for life in the world. Amen.

Pastor:

Beloved people of God: in Jesus, the manna from heaven, you are fed an nourished. By Jesus, the worker of miracles, there is always more than enough. Through Jesus, + the bread of life, you are shown God’s mercy: you are forgiven and loved into abundant life.

Amen.

*When our brothers and sisters at Zion Lutheran Church in Hollidaysburg gathered for worship , we heard again the story of God’s mighty acts and the love shown to us in Jesus’ life, death, resur- rection, and ascension, and we shared in the holy meal of the Lord’s Supper. Now, I bring to you this same word of life, and this same bread and cup of blessing, so that we may share these gifts and be strengthened in communion with all the people of God. Gathered at the Lord’s table, we celebrated with thanksgiving that “in the night in which Jesus was betrayed, he took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples saying: Take and eat; this is my body given for you. Do this in remembrance of me. Again, after supper he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink saying: “This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.” This is the supper our Lord Jesus Christ, and this meal is shared with the assurance of our Lord’s pres- ence through the gift of the Holy Spirit. This bread and cup, shared in the gathering of our faith, are now given here for you..
