Communion Hospitality

Lutheran Christians believe Christ is truly present in his supper. By faith we receive his Body and Blood “in, with, and under” the forms: of bread and wine for our forgiveness, life, and salvation. All baptized Christians who desire to receive Jesus in his sacrament are welcome to commune..

THE HOLY COMMUNION

Parish Announcements

Prelude

*= Stand (The sign of the cross + may be made by all in remembrance of their Baptism.)

*Announcements:

Pastor: Blessed be the holy Trinity, + one God, our creator, our protector, our wellspring of life. Amen.

Trusting that God receives our words and the meditations of our hearts, let us confess our sin.

Silence us kept for reflection. Please kneel as you are able.

Pastor: Merciful God, you speak blessing and compassion into the world. Forgive us for ways we act with judgement, cruelty, or indifference. We ignore the needs of our neighbors; we resist your call to oppose injustice; we give in to scarcity and fear; we assume the worst about one another. Cleanse us from our faults and release us from their grasp. Show us your lovingkindness. Restore our hearts and repair your world. That we may live in Christ’s ways. C: Amen.

God proclaims these words of assurance: ”Do not fear, for I have redeemed you. I have called you by name. You are mine.” In + Christ, you are forgiven. In the spirit, you are made free. Refreshed by the waters of mercy, live anew as beloved children of God. Amen.

Liturgy of Holy Communion
*Great Thanksgiving and Sanctus		p. 88
*When our congregation gathered for worship on Sunday morning, we heard again the story of God’s mighty acts and the love shown to us in Jesus’ life, death, resurrection, and ascension, and we shared the holy meal of the Lord’s Supper. Now, I bring to you this same word of life, and this same bread and cup of blessing, so that we may share these gifts and be strengthened in communion with all the people of God.
Gathered at the Lord’s table, we celebrated with thanksgiving that ”In the night in which Jesus was betrayed, he took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples saying: Take and eat; is my body given to for you. Do this in remembrance of me. Again, after supper he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink saying: “This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.” This is the supper our Lord Jesus Christ, and this meal is shared with assurance of our Lord’s presence through the gift of the Holy Spirit. This bread and cup, shared in the gathering of our faith, are now given here for you.
*The Lord’s Prayer		p. 91
*Invitation to Communion:
Pastor:	The joy of the world is our strength. Come, eat this meal of gladness.
*Agnes Dei	“Lamb of God”	p. 92
As the ministers give the bread and wine, they say these words to each communicant: “The body of Christ, given for you.” & ‘The blood of Christ, shed for you.’ After each, the communicant may say: ‘Amen.’
