This morning, Jack Seymour, an authorized lay worship leader in the Allegheny Synod, ELCA, will distribute the gifts of bread and wine.

Thank you to Tom & Sharon for hosting a fire/cookout at their house last weekend for the youth/parents. It was such a great time. We appreciate you.

YOUTH PLAY: The youth will be presenting a play during the Christmas Eve service. Sunday School will be shortened to allow practice time for the youth. We are blessed as a congregation to have youth who are active in our church. Thanks to all who are helping make this successful.

Sunday school is following church service today. If your child is in service today, they are welcome to attend. If anyone is interested in helping with Sunday school, please contact Sonny at 814-691-2349. Thank you.

Next social hour is Sunday, November 2, following worship service. Please sign up on the door in the narthex, if you would like to contribute to snacks. Thank you.

There will be a Council meeting on Monday, October 8 at 6:30 pm.

We are still in need of 3 volunteers for the Nominating Committee. Please see Tom Cordwell or any council member if you are interested.

If anyone in need of Pastoral care, please call the Allegheny Synod Office, at (814) 942-1042 to make needed arrangements.

Communion Hospitality
Lutheran Christians believe Christ is truly present in his supper. By faith we receive his Body and Blood “in, with, and under” the forms: of bread and wine for our forgiveness, life, and salvation. All baptized Christians who desire to receive Jesus in his sacrament, are welcome to commune.

A little faith goes a long way in Jesus’ point in the gospel. A mustard seed’s worth of faith has miraculous potential. The patience, tenacity, and endurance required for the life of faith are the blessings received in holy baptism, holy communion, and the word read and proclaimed in this assembly. Anticipate them. Receive them with thanksgiving.

(The sign of the cross + may be made by all in remembrance of their Baptism.)

*Announcements:

Pastor:

Blessed be the holy Trinity, + one God, our maker, our helper, and our keeper.

C: Amen.

Trusting in God’s mercy, let us confess our sin in the presence of God and of one another.

Silence is kept for reflection. Please kneel as you are able.

Pastor:

Merciful and loving God, we are your stiff-necked people. We trample on the needy. We grumble about your grace to others. We turn away from the poor. Have mercy on us and forgive our sins. Rejoice over us as ones who were lost and have been found.

Amen.

Pastor:

Even when we are faithless, God remains faithful. Jesus Christ came into the world to save sinners. You who were lost have been found. In the name of + Jesus, your sins are forgiven!

Amen.

* When our brothers and sisters at Zion Lutheran Church in Hollidaysburg gathered for worship, they heard again the story of God’s mighty acts and the love shown to us in Jesus’ life, death, resurrection, and ascension, and they shared the holy meal of the Lord’s Supper. Now, I bring to you this same word of life, and this same bread and cup of blessing, so that we may share these gifts and be strengthened in communion with all the people of God. Gathered at the Lord’s table, our brothers and sisters in Christ celebrated with thanksgiving that ”In the night in which Jesus was betrayed, he took bread and gave thanks; broke it and gave it to his disciples saying: Take and eat; this is my body given to for you. Do this in remembrance of me. Again, after supper he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink saying: “This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.” This is the supper our Lord Jesus Christ, and this meal is shared with assurance of our Lord’s presence through the gift of the Holy Spirit. This bread and cup, shared in the gathering of our faith, are now given here for you.
* The Lord’s Prayer		p. 71
* Invitation to Communion:
Pastor: Jesus welcomes sinners and eats with them. Come to this meal of mercy.
