Today, Jack Seymour, an authorized lay worship leader in the Allegheny Synod ELCA, will distribute the gifts of bread and wine.

We would like to wish everyone a Very Merry Christmas and a Blessed New Year.

Thank you to all who helped with decorating the church. As always, the church looks amazing for Christmas. We also had a wonderful time afterwards during social time and Jingle Jingle ... a fun time was had by all.

Next social time will be on Sunday, January 4th, following the service. If anyone would like to sign up to bring something, please do so in the Narthex.

Next Council meeting will be on Monday, January 5th, at 6:30 pm.

Annual Congregational Meeting, January 18, 2026.

If anyone in need of Pastoral care, please call the Allegheny Synod Office, at (814) 942-1042 to make needed arrangements.

Communion Hospitality

Lutheran Christians believe Christ is truly present in his supper. By faith we receive his Body and Blood “in, with, and under” the forms: of bread and wine for our forgiveness, life, and salvation. All baptized Christians who desire to receive Jesus in his sacrament, are welcome to commune.

Tall candles in memory of Patty Shultz by Clarence.

In winter’s deepest night, we welcome the light of the Christ child, Isaiah declares that the light of the long-promised king will illumine the world and bring endless peace and justice. Paul reminds us that the grace of God through Jesus Christ brings salvation to all people. The angels declare that Jesus’ birth is good and joyful news for everyone, including lowly shepherds. Filled with the light that shines in our lives, we go forth to share the light of Christ with the whole world.

*Announcements:

Pastor:

Blessed be the holy Trinity, + one God, whose home is heaven and earth, whose salvation is sure.

C: Amen.

Let us confess our sin in the presence of God and of one another.

Silence is kept for reflection. Please kneel as you are able.

Pastor:

Reconciling God, we yearn for your presence to transform our grief, pain, and despair. We confess that we have not always prepared room in our hearts for your love; we have not always recognized your presence among us; we have not always embraced your message of peace. We cry out, weary with the burden of violence, oppression and fear. We confess our failure to make room for those seeking refuge; our participation in violent systems that harm your innocent ones; our reluctance to embody your good news. Be born in us today and teach us to sing the joyful song of your salvation. Amen.

Pastor:

God’s grace upon grace flows over you. +Christ’s presence redeems the whole creation. Your sins are forgiven. Let the earth rejoice and be glad!. Amen.

*When our congregation gathered for worship, we heard again the story of God’s mighty acts and of the love shown to us in Jesus’ life, death, resurrection, and ascension, and shared in the holy meal of the Lord’s Supper. Now, I bring to you this same word of life, and this same bread and cup of blessing, so that we may share in these gifts and be strengthened in communion with all the people of God.
Gathered at the Lord’s Table, we celebrated with thanksgiving that “in the night in which Jesus was betrayed, he took bread and gave thanks; broke it and gave it to his disciples saying: “Take and eat; this is my body given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.” Again, after supper he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it to for all to drink saying: “This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.” This is the supper of our Lord Jesus Christ, and this meal is shared with the assurance of our Lord’s presence through the gift of the Holy Spirit. This bread and cup, shared in the gathering of our faith, are now given here for you.
