Lutheran Book of Prayer: New Year's Day- Lord God, heavenly Father, though You have created us for a life of eternity, we confess that by our sins we have transformed the space of time into a prelude for death. Forgive us the sins of the past, and breathe into us the Spirit of Your Son that we may serve you in this new year. Amen.

Ash Wednesday- Lord Jesus, we come before You sprinkled with ashes of sorrow, robed in sackcloth of repentance, and humbled by our fault, by our most grievous fault. Help us so to watch with You in Your Passion, that we remain awake to the infinite power of Your love. Amen.

Lent- Lord, bring us close to Your cross that we might know how You loved us and give Yourself for us. Lord Jesus, through it all help us hear in Your prayer the single purpose for which You endured pain and death: "Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do." Amen.

The Father's Love: Jesus said, "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called "children of God," Lord of Light, fill me with your peace in this day. Allow me to reflect it back out to the world as a beacon of my faith in you. Amen.

Lutheran Small Catechism 1979:

Confession: What is private confession? Private confession has two parts. First, we make a personal confession of sins to the pastor, and then we receive absolution, which means forgiveness as from God himself. This absolution we should not doubt, but firmly believe that thereby our sins are forgiven before God in heaven.

What sins should we confess? Before God we should confess that we are guilty of all sins, even those which are not known to us, as we do in the Lord's Prayer. But in private confession, as before the pastor, we should confess only those sins which trouble us in heart and mind.

What are such sins? We can examine our everyday life according to the Ten Commandments- for example, how we act toward father or mother, son or daughter, husband or wife, or toward the people with whom we work, and so on. We may ask ourselves whether we have been disobedient or unfaithful, bad-tempered or dishonest, or whether we have hurt anyone by word or deed.

How might we confess our sins privately? We may say that we wish to confess our sin and to receive absolution in God's name. We may begin by saying, "I, a poor sinner, confess before God that I am guilty of many sins." Then we should name the sins that trouble us. We may close the confession with the words, "I repent of all these sins and pray for mercy. I promise to do better with God's help."

Luther and Lutheranism: Martin Luther was eight years old when Christopher Columbus set sail from Europe and landed in the Western Hemisphere. Luther was a young monk and priest when Michaelangelo was painting the Sistine Chapel in Rome. A few years later, he was a junior faculty member at a new university in small-town Germany, intently studying the Scriptures, "captivated with an extraordinary ardor for understanding Paul in the Epistle to the Romans." In these days Luther was tormented by the demand for righteousness before God. "I did not love, yes, I hated the righteous God who punishes sinners, and secretly, if not blasphemously, certainly murmuring greatly, I was angry with God." Then, in the midst of that struggle with God, the message of the Scriptures became clear, like a long-shut door opening wide. When he realized that a "merciful God justifies us by faith."

Happy Anniversary!

FYI SECTION

Advent ends on Christmas Day and we will enter in to the next three seasons of the church in this edition of the newsletter for January, February, and March. The following is a little refresher on seasons of the church.

Christmas is a day and a season when we celebrate God's coming among us as a human child: JESUS, Emmanuel (which means "God with Us"). The liturgical color for Christmas is white, which reminds us that Jesus is the light of the world. Christmas lasts for 12 days from December 25 until January 5.

Epiphany is celebrated on January 6, when we remember the three wisemen visit to the Christ child. The color for epiphany day is white. During the time after Epiphany, we hear stories about Jesus' baptism and early ministry. The color for these Sundays is sometimes white and sometimes green. On the last Sunday we celebrate the Transfiguration. The color for this day is white, and we hear the story of Jesus shining brightly on the mountaintop.

Lent is a season when we turn to God and think about how our lives need to change. Lent begins on Ash Wednesday which will be February 18, 2026. It is also a time to remember our baptism, and how that gift gives us a new start every day. The color for Lent is Purple, symbolizing repentance. Lent begins Ash Wednesday and lasts for 40 days (not including Sundays) and ends on the Saturday before Easter Sunday.

Let's talk about attending church!!! Maybe you do attend regularly, maybe it's hit and miss, or maybe you have good intentions but somehow just never make it on Sunday. Even if you are attending regularly maybe your heart and mind are not present, like there in body but not in mind. Whatever your category, it's a new year and lets all try to make a conscious effort to attend regularly and be present in mind and body. God is present always and there for us no matter what our excuses are for not giving up approximately one hour a week to listen to a message that just may give you what you need to face the week ahead. Please consider coming back to church if you have not been coming. We are a family of Christians and just like our family at home, we are all there for each other and seeing everyone gives you a little boost for the week ahead.

Please come to church and join in the family. We need you and miss you and our church is growing little by little. The kids now have Sunday school and we have several kids coming regularly. Some of the church family has given of their time and talents to have Sunday school and some are working hard on activities for the kids like movie night and Weakland's corn maze, and even doing a Christmas play. These kids are the future of our church and we all need to support them and set examples so our church continues to grow and thrive.

Matthew 18:20 - "For where two or three come together in my name, there am I with them."

Hebrews 10:24-25 – "And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds, not giving up meeting together as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching."

Colossians 3:16 – "Let the message of Christ dwell among you richly as you teach and admonish one another with all wisdom through psalms, hymns, and songs from the Spirit, singing to God with gratitude in your hearts."

First Lutheran Church of Portage Newsletter

The Lord's Prayer: Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be they name, they kingdom come, they will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

In this next section of the newsletter, we try to talk with and see what is going on in our church family's lives and how they are doing and things you may or may not know about them and things they may want to share. Everyone is welcome to have anything put in the pews news that you may want to share with the rest of the church family, just put it in either Becky or Sharon's mailbox or email us and we will be happy to put it in.

Pews News

Our church family sends the Walter E. Maul family our deepest condolences and sympathy. Walter passed on December 10, 2025. Walter was a long time dedicated and active member of our church. He sang in the choir and was assistant organist for years and then became the organist until December 2023 when he very reluctantly retired from it. Walter also was church secretary for several years. He will be dearly missed by all who knew him. Please keep the family in your prayers for healing and comfort.

We would like to send a thank you and our appreciation to Theresa Arena who took over playing the organ for us in May of 2024. Theresa is a great asset to our church family and we so appreciate her time and talents. Theresa plays for several other churches in the area and manages to play for us in her busy schedule. Thank you!

In other pews news Sonny and Dan Kerch went to Germany to visit with Noah and Lena for Thanksgiving. Here are some highlights of their trip.

Thanksgiving was a little different for us this year. We got to celebrate with Noah and Lena in Germany. It was different not to hear everyone saying "Happy Thanksgiving" everywhere we went. We had to remember it is an American holiday. Haha!

We were able to experience some German culture by visiting Christmas markets in Bamberg, Nuremberg, Hof, and Munich. We squeezed as much as we could into our five-day visit. Noah has learned to speak German pretty well. Dan and I were quite impressed with him. We even had time to visit with Lena's dad and brother.

As hard as it is to have one of your kids so far away, we were very grateful and blessed to be able to make the trip. Wishing you all a wonderful Christmas and a blessed New Year.

We have been very busy at the church as we got a new epoxy floor in the basement kitchen. This project took a lot of work to get it accomplished. It's like you start what you think is one job and it turns into a bunch of jobs. The whole kitchen was taken apart and everything taken out of it. The big stove, all the cabinets, the refrigerator, and all tables were taken out and put in social room. The men fixed and painted the walls, cleaned, sorted dishes, pots, and pans, were washed and put back in some sort of organization. A BIG THANK YOU TO ALL WHO HELPED IN ANY WAY this could not have been done without you.

All that was done while some of our talented people in the church were working with the kids and practicing for the Christmas play. The social room got cleaned up just in time for church decorating and a time for fellowship on Sunday December 21. We thank all those who are stepping up and working with the youth. It is working and our church is growing and so good to see all the kids being involved in the church. Some pictures of the church decorating:

After decorating the church, members had lunch and played games. Some pictures of the lunch and Bingo game "Jingle Jingle." Thank you all who helped and we had a wonderful time socializing.

HAPPY NEW YEAR TO ALL!

Hello All,

I hope you all had a wonderful Christmas with family and friends.

I wanted to reach out because I have been doing a lot of thinking about the direction the church is heading. I consider all members of the church as my extended family. I sometimes sit on a Sunday morning, prior to the start of church and I look around. I start thinking of this family or that one, about their kids and even their kids now. I think of how you are missed. I think of what I can do to help in some way.

I am writing to let you all know that I would like to start up Sunday School again. Starting the 2nd Sunday in January, I will be preparing a 30–45-minute lesson. If you attend with your child and would like him/her to attend Sunday School, it will start directly after the service. Parents you are more than welcome to stay if you like. I also have a few people who are willing to help.

Every issue of the First Lutheran Church Newsletter I put in this little thing in...

I am excited to start fellowship with the kids again. I hope to see you soon.

Sonny

CH__ CH what is missing UR

Here is a message to think about.

The children of the church are the future and without them what will our future be??? Please come be a part of our church family and hear the word of God that gives you the boost that you may need to face the week ahead. We miss you we are not the same without you.
