All Saints celebrates the baptized people of God, living and dead, who are the body of Christ. As November heralds the dying of the landscape in many northern regions, the readings and liturgy call us to remember all who have died in Christ and whose baptism is complete. At the Lord's table, we gather with the faithful of every time and place, trusting that the promises of God will be fulfilled and that all tears will be wiped away in the new Jerusalem.

Today, Gary Mickle, authorized lay worship leader in the Allegheny Synod ELCA, will distribute the gifts of bread and wine.

Next social time has been changed to November 29th. We would like to celebrate those being baptized. If you are interested in hosting, please sign up in the Narthex. You can be reimbursed for your expenses, just save your receipts and give them to Dan.

We will not have a social hour in December, per say. We will be having our decorating "meal" on church Christmas decorating day.

Next Council meeting will be tomorrow, November 2nd, at 6:30 pm.

How blessed … we sold out of apple dumplings before the Halloween parade (we had 127 made). Knowing you want more, there is also going to be an apple dumpling sale for November 22 pick-up. To order, please see one of the wonderful ladies, of the church or sign up in the Narthex.

If anyone in need of Pastoral care, please call the Allegheny Synod Office, at (814) 942-1042 to make needed arrangements.

Communion Hospitality

Lutheran Christians believe Christ is truly present in his supper. By faith we receive his Body and Blood "in, with, and under" the forms: of bread and wine for our forgiveness, life, and salvation. All baptized Christians who desire to receive Jesus in his sacrament, are welcome to commune.

Sanctuary candle is place in memory of Virginia Pinos, by Ruth Elaine. Tall and small candles are placed in memory of Virginia Pinos, by Ruth Elaine.

Liturgy of Holy Communion

Great Thanksgiving and Sanctus p. 88

 When our congregation gathered for worship, we heard again the story of God's mighty acts and of the love shown to us in Jesus' life, death, resurrection, and ascension, and we shared in the holy meal of the Lord's Supper. Now, I bring to you this same word of life, and this same bread and cup of blessing, so that we may share in these gifts and be strengthened in communion with all the people of God.

Gathered at the Lord's Table, we celebrated with thanksgiving that in the night in which Jesus was betrayed, he took bread and gave thanks; broke it and gave it to his disciples saying: "Take and eat; this is my body given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me". Again, after supper he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink saying: "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me". This is the supper of our Lord Jesus Christ, and this meal is shared with the assurance of our Lord's presence through the gift of the Holy Spirit. This bread and cup, shared in the gathering of our faith, are now given here for you.

The Lord's Prayer

Invitation to Communion:
Pastor: In bread and cup the reign of Christ is breaking in. Come, receive what Christ has prepared.

Agnes Dei "Lamb of God" p. 92
As bread and wine is given, these words are said to each communicant:
"The body of Christ, given for you." & "The blood of Christ, shed for you."
After each, the communicant may say: 'Amen.'
